

Sanlam US Absolute Return Fund

A market neutral strategy investing in long and short positions in North American equities.

Managed by Adour Sarkissian since inception in October 2019, the fund aims to deliver a positive return in all market conditions.

The fund:

- Is a logical extension of our long-only product and applies elements of its systematic, disciplined and consistent process
- Adopts a market neutral strategy investing in long and short positions in North American equities.
- Offers a low correlation to traditional market indices
