

Catalyst Global Real Estate Fund

A portfolio focussed on investing in developed market Real Estate securities listed on international stock exchanges.

Launched in November 2007 the Fund aims to generate positive income and capital returns over a medium to long term investment horizon.

The Fund:

- Offers diversified global real estate exposure across regions, countries, currencies and real estate sub sectors
- Is managed by dedicated real estate specialists with direct real estate market experience
- Invests in developed markets adopting a detailed discounted cash flow forecast with a scientific approach to the risk associated with those flows
