

Supplementary nomination of beneficiary

Private & confidential - when completed

The information contained within this form relates to application reference number

Name of applicant

This form should be submitted along with the client declaration.

The Scheme Administrator has discretion how and to whom death benefits are paid. These benefits can be paid to one or more of your beneficiaries according to the rules of the scheme, and are normally free of inheritance tax.

This section gives you the opportunity to nominate who, in the event of your death, you wish any death benefits to be paid to.

You should speak to your Financial Adviser if you need help in completing this section.

Charity lump sum death benefit

You may nominate a charity to whom your pension fund may be passed as a lump sum on your death. This can be paid only if you have started to take pension benefits, or you are aged 75 or over, at the time of your death, and have no dependants. Any charity lump sum death benefit will be paid tax free. Please contact us if you wish to nominate a charity.

Tax

In the event of your death, the benefits may be paid to one or more beneficiaries either as a lump sum, or as flexi-access drawdown.

On death before age 75, all benefits will be paid free of tax, if paid or designated to flexi-access drawdown within two years of notification of death.

On death on or after age 75, the benefits will be liable to tax. Details of the tax rates that apply are as set out in our factsheet "Pension Scheme Allowances & Tax Charges", available on our website or on request.

Following the death of a beneficiary the tax treatment will depend on the age of the beneficiary who was holding the pension at their death. For example, this will normally be tax free if death occurs before age 75 and taxable if death occurs after age 75.

If your beneficiary has not withdrawn the entire pension fund before their death then the funds can be passed on again. Your beneficiary will be able to nominate other beneficiaries (also known as successors) who they want the funds to go to following their death.

The successors will then have the option of taking the funds as a lump sum or using it to provide an income.

Keeping your nomination up to date

You may tell us of a change of nominated beneficiary at any time. It is important to keep your nomination up to date and that it reflects your current circumstances. The Scheme Administrator has discretion how and to whom the death benefits are paid. We will on your death make enquiries of your potential beneficiaries and take account of your wishes, but the Scheme Administrator is not bound by them.

Please complete the Schedule of Nominations below

I wish to nominate the following person(s) to receive any death benefits which become payable under my Account.

I understand that the nomination(s) is an expression of my wishes, which is not binding on the Scheme Administrator.

Please indicate the percentage of your fund that you would like each beneficiary to receive. You can also make a nomination to other types of beneficiaries, such as the trustees of a trust, but a trust can only receive death benefits as a lump sum.
