Is this transfer from a Defined Benefit Scheme or a scheme with safeguarded benefits, other guarantees or promises? Yes  No

In a defined benefit/final salary scheme you are promised a certain level of pension at retirement, which may increase both before and after it comes into payment. If you proceed with the transfer, you will give up all rights to any guarantees to benefits under the transferring scheme, including any death benefits which may have been available under that scheme. Once you have transferred rights out of your existing pension scheme, you will not be able to transfer back.

Does this represent the full value of the pension plan? Yes  No

Have any benefits commenced from the scheme? Yes  No

Have you been granted protection from the lifetime allowance charge by HMRC? Yes  No

If yes, please provide a copy of your certificate if you have one, or provide your HMRC reference numbers.

It is unlikely you will lose protection from the lifetime allowance charge, unless this transfer is not a permitted transfer. If you want further information about this, you should consult the trustees or administrator of the transferring scheme or your Financial Adviser.

Please refer to our factsheet entitled 'Pension Scheme Allowances & Tax Charges' for more information on the protection regimes available.

Is this transfer part of a Block Transfer?

If you have not yet started to take benefits you may lose protected tax-free cash (pension commencement lump sum), and/or entitlement to take your benefits from an age earlier than 55 unless this transfer is part of a block transfer. If you want further information about this, you should consult the trustees or administrator of the transferring scheme or your Financial Adviser.

Have the benefits been subject to a pension sharing order on divorce, nullity of marriage or dissolution of a civil partnership?

Yes  No

Does any of the transfer represent a pension credit or credits as a consequence of a pension-sharing order on divorce or nullity of marriage or the dissolving of a civil partnership?

Yes  No

Is the transfer subject to an earmarking/attachment order?

Yes  No

If any benefits have been earmarked we will not accept the transfer without a copy of the stamped Court Order and, where necessary, confirmation that the ex-spouse or ex-civil partner has consented to the transfer.

Where the payment(s) made to Sanlam Investments and Pensions represent(s) all of the funds under the plan(s) listed in this form, then payment made as requested will mean that I shall no longer be entitled to receive pension or other benefits from the plan(s) listed.

Where the payment(s) made to Sanlam Investments and Pensions represent(s) part of the funds under the plan(s) listed in this form, then payment made as requested will mean that I shall no longer be entitled to receive pension or other benefits from that part of the plan(s) represented by the payment(s).

I promise to accept responsibility in respect of any claims, losses and expenses that Sanlam Investments and Pensions and the current provider may incur as a result of any incorrect information provided by me in this application or of any failure on my part to comply with any aspect of this application.

If I have taken benefits from any pension arrangement, with the current or any other pension provider, in a way which means I am subject to the Money Purchase Annual Allowance (MPAA), I have supplied the date the MPAA first applied to me in the main application.
