The 'due date' is the nineteenth of the month following the date on which an employee's contribution is deducted from his/her earnings or an employer's contribution is payable.

We will use this Schedule of Payments to determine the 'due date' of your employer's payments. Your employer must tell us of any changes before they happen, so that a revised schedule can be in place by the date of the change. We may have to make a report to the Pensions Regulator if the employer does not give us sufficient payment information, does not keep the Schedule of Payments up to date, or if we do not receive full payment of contributions by the 'due date'.

Section 5. Details of Beneficiaries

The Scheme Administrator has discretion how and to whom death benefits are paid. These benefits can be paid to one or more of your beneficiaries according to the rules of the scheme, and are normally free of inheritance tax.

Please nominate who, in the event of your death, you wish any death benefits to be paid to.

You should speak to your Financial Adviser if you need help in completing this section

Schedule of Nominations

I wish to nominate the following person(s) to receive any death benefits which become payable under my Account. I understand that the nomination(s) is an expression of my wishes, which is not binding on the Scheme Administrator.

Please indicate the percentage of your fund that you would like each beneficiary to receive. You can also make a nomination to other types of beneficiaries, such as the trustees of a trust but a trust can only receive death benefits as a lump sum.

Charity lump sum death benefit

You may nominate a charity to whom your pension fund may be passed as a lump sum on your death. This can be paid only if you have started to take pension benefits, or you are aged 75 or over, at the time of your death, and have no dependants. Any charity lump sum death benefit will be paid tax free. Please contact us if you wish to nominate a charity.

Tax

In the event of your death, the benefits may be paid to one or more beneficiaries either as a lump sum, or as flexi-access drawdown.

On death before age 75, all benefits will be paid free of tax if paid or designated to flexi-access drawdown within two years of notification of death.

On death on or after age 75, the benefits will be liable to tax. Details of the tax rates that apply are as set out in our factsheet "Pension Scheme Allowances & Tax Charges", available on our website or on request.

Following the death of a beneficiary the tax treatment will depend on the age of the beneficiary who was holding the pension at their death. For example, this will normally be tax free if death occurs before age 75 and taxable if death occurs age 75 or over.

If your beneficiary has not withdrawn the entire pension fund before their death then the funds can be passed on again. Your beneficiary will be able to nominate other beneficiaries (known as successors) who they want the funds to go to following their death.

The successors will then have the option of taking the funds as a lump sum or using it to provide an income.

Keeping your nomination up to date

You may tell us of a change of nominated beneficiary at any time. It is important to keep your nomination up to date and that it reflects your current circumstances. The Scheme Administrator has discretion how and to whom the death benefits are paid. On your death we will make enquiries of your potential beneficiaries and take account of your wishes, but the Scheme Administrator is not bound by them.

Section 6. Adviser Fees instruction

This section needs to be completed if payment of Adviser Fees is to be facilitated from the Personal Pension.

Notes:

- All Adviser Fees must be for advice given on pension products only; otherwise HMRC may deem these to be unauthorised payments.
- Where payment of any initial Adviser Fee is deducted from a single contribution or from regular contributions once this is invested, the contribution may attract tax relief and will normally count towards the annual allowance (see Notes in Section 8).

Initial Adviser Fee

The Initial Adviser Fee payable to the Financial Adviser may be facilitated from:

- transfer values/single contributions, and/or
- regular contributions.

(a) Initial Adviser Fee to be facilitated from transfer value or single contribution:

Amount  or % of transfer value/single contribution  %

(b) Initial Adviser Fee to be facilitated from regular contributions:

- Monthly, there will be a maximum of 24 Adviser Fees.
- Quarterly, there will be a maximum of 8 Adviser Fees.
- Half Yearly, there will be a maximum of 4 Adviser Fees.
- Annually, there will be a maximum of 2 Adviser Fees.

Notes:

- If a contribution is subsequently refunded or is not honoured, the initial Adviser Fee will be recovered.

Ongoing Adviser Fee

Ongoing Adviser Fees will be calculated as a percentage of the fund value as determined in the Terms and Conditions. Please indicate the fee percentage agreed below:

% per annum Payment frequency: Monthly  Quarterly

(paid according to the frequency selected)

Applicant's Declaration and Authority to pay Adviser Fees

- I authorise Sanlam Investments and Pensions to pay the Adviser Fees detailed above from my Personal Pension to my Financial Adviser whose details are provided in Section 9.

  - I may instruct Sanlam Investments and Pensions in writing to cease payment of Ongoing Adviser Fees at any time, provided they receive not less than 5 working days' notice before the payment due date;
  - if I pay and subsequently cancel a payment to my Personal Pension, the amount to be refunded to me will be net of the initial Adviser Fee agreed above.
  - If I wish to vary the amount of Adviser Fees to be paid from my Personal Pension, I must give Sanlam Investments and Pensions prior written notice not less than 5 working days before any payment due date and any subsequent variations will only be allowed at the frequency permitted from time to time;
  - If I change my Financial Adviser, I must advise Sanlam Investments and Pensions in writing and that any Adviser Fees being paid to the Financial Adviser whose details are provided in this Section will normally cease. If initial Adviser Fees are being facilitated from regular contributions these Adviser Fees will continue to be paid to the original Financial Adviser unless I notify Sanlam Investments and Pensions in writing that such payments should cease; and
  - It is my responsibility to pay Adviser Fees. I have agreed this with my Financial Adviser and this responsibility remains with me if I cancel or vary the instruction to facilitate payment of Adviser Fees from my Personal Pension.

Section 8. Notes

A. General

The descriptions and definitions given in these notes are for outline guidance only and are not binding in law. The descriptions and definitions which apply are those in the legislation. If you are in any doubt, you should contact the scheme administrator, your accountant or, where appropriate, your Inspector of Taxes. 'HMRC' means HM Revenue & Customs.

Please also refer to our factsheets entitled 'Pension Scheme Allowances & Tax Charges' and 'Pension Contributions & Tax Relief' for information on the applicable limits, tax charges and the protection regimes that apply.

B. Annual allowance

i) The total pension savings made by and in respect of, a member to all registered pension schemes, including any employer contributions, must be tested in each tax year against the annual allowance for that year. There is an exemption from the annual allowance test in the tax year in which a member takes all benefits due to serious/severe ill health from an arrangement and in the tax year in which a member dies.

ii) If the annual allowance is exceeded, there is a tax charge on the member which will negate any tax relief available.

Further information on carry forward of unused annual allowance, the Money Purchase Annual Allowance, and the Tapered Annual Allowance is available in our factsheet 'Pension Contributions & Tax Relief'. Alternatively, speak to your Financial Adviser.

C. Basic amount

The basic amount is £3,600 gross (£2,880 net of basic-rate tax) for the current tax year. The figure may be increased for future years by the Treasury.

D. Relevant UK earnings

This is defined in the pensions tax legislation at section 189 (2) & (3) of the Finance Act 2004.

In broad terms this is:

- employment income,
- self-employed income,
- income from patent rights,
- earnings from overseas crown employment.

This means that salary counts as relevant UK earnings but investment income and dividends do not. Relevant UK earnings are to be treated as not being chargeable to income tax if by virtue of a double taxation agreement, they are not taxable in the UK.

E. Relevant UK individual

An individual is a relevant UK individual for a tax year, if the individual:

- Has relevant UK earnings chargeable to income tax for that tax year; or
- Is resident in the UK for tax purposes at some time during that tax year; or
- Was resident in the UK for tax purposes at some time during the five tax years immediately before the tax year in question and was also resident in the UK when he/she joined the pension scheme; or
- Has for that tax year general earnings from overseas crown employment subject to UK tax (as defined by Section 28 of the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003) or if the individual's spouse or civil partner has earnings from overseas crown employment, subject to UK tax for that tax year.

F. Pension Input Periods

A Pension Input Period (PIP) is a period over which you pay pension contributions (pension input amounts) or build up pension benefits. The PIP will commence on the date the first contribution is paid to your Personal Pension and will end on the following 5th April.
